Old Testament Reading

Ecclesiastes 5:10–20

¹⁰He who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves wealth with his income; this also is vanity. ¹¹When goods increase, they increase who eat them, and what advantage has their owner but to see them with his eyes? ¹²Sweet is the sleep of a laborer, whether he eats little or much, but the full stomach of the rich will not let him sleep. ¹³There is a grievous evil that I have seen under the sun: riches were kept by their owner to his hurt, ¹⁴and those riches were lost in a bad venture. And he is father of a son, but he has nothing in his hand. ¹⁵As he came from his mother's womb he shall go again, naked as he came, and shall take nothing for his toil that he may carry away in his hand. ¹⁶This also is a grievous evil: just as he came, so shall he go, and what gain is there to him who toils for the wind? ¹⁷Moreover, all his days he eats in darkness in much vexation and sickness and anger. ¹⁸Behold, what I have seen to be good and fitting is to eat and drink and find enjoyment in all the toil with which one toils under the sun the few days of his life that God has given him, for this is his lot. ¹⁹Everyone also to whom God has given wealth and possessions and power to enjoy them, and to accept his lot and rejoice in his toil—this is the gift of God. ²⁰For he will not much remember the days of his life because God keeps him occupied with joy in his heart.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Epistle

Hebrews 4:1–13

¹Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us fear lest any of you should seem to have failed to reach it. ²For good news came to us just as to them, but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened. ³For we who have believed enter that rest, as he has said,

“As I swore in my wrath,
‘They shall not enter my rest,’”

although his works were finished from the foundation of the world. ⁴For he has somewhere spoken of the seventh day in this way: “And God rested on the seventh day from all his works.” ⁵And again in this passage he said,

“They shall not enter my rest.”

⁶Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience, ⁷again he appoints a certain day, “Today,” saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted,

“Today, if you hear his voice,
do not harden your hearts.”

⁸For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. ⁹So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, ¹⁰for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his.

¹¹Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. ¹²For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Alleluia and Verse

C Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp). The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes. Below the staff, the lyrics are: "Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the". The second staff continues the melody with quarter and eighth notes, ending with a double bar line. Below the staff, the lyrics are: "words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia."

Holy Gospel

Mark 10:23–31

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the tenth chapter.

C Glo - ry to You, O Lord.

²³Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How difficult it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!” ²⁴And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how difficult it is to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.” ²⁶And they were exceedingly astonished, and said to him, “Then who can be saved?” ²⁷Jesus looked at them and said, “With man it is impossible, but not with God. For all things are possible with God.” ²⁸Peter began to say to him, “See, we have left everything and followed you.” ²⁹Jesus said, “Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, ³⁰who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life. ³¹But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.

Sermon

Prayer of the Church

Offering

Music at the Offering Luther's Morning Prayer

Carl Schalk

I thank you heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord.
You kept me safely through the night, and brought me to the morning light.
Be with me through this day, I pray, and keep me safe from Satan's sway that all I think or do or say please only you, my Strength and Stay.
Into your hands I now commend my body and soul until life's end.
Your angel keep me safe from harm until I rest in Jesus arm. Amen.

Offertory

What shall I ren-der to the Lord for all His ben-e-fits to me? I will of-fer the sac-ri-fice of thanks-giv-ing and will call on the name of the Lord. I will take the cup of salva-tion and will call on the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows to the Lord now in the pres-ence of all His peo-ple, in the courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of you, O Je-ru-sa-lem.

Service of the Sacrament

Preface

The Lord be with you.
And al-so with you.
Lift up your hearts.

C We lift them to the Lord.

P Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

P It is truly good, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Therefore with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven we laud and magnify Your glorious name, evermore praising You and saying:

Sanctus

C Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might:

Heav-en and earth are full of Your glo-ry. Ho - san-na. Ho - san-na. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high - est.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

P Blessed are You, Lord of heaven and earth, for You have had mercy on those whom You created and sent Your only-begotten Son into our flesh to bear our sin and be our Savior. With repentant joy we receive the salvation accomplished for us by the all-availing sacrifice of His body and His blood on the cross.

Gathered in the name and the remembrance of Jesus, we beg You, O Lord, to forgive, renew, and strengthen us with Your Word and Spirit. Grant us faithfully to eat His body and drink His blood as He bids us do in His own testament. Gather us together, we pray, from the ends of the earth to celebrate with all the faithful the marriage feast of the Lamb in His kingdom, which has no end. Graciously receive our prayers; deliver and preserve us. To You alone, O Father, be all glory, honor, and worship, with the Son and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Lord's Prayer

C Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven;
give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those
who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom
and the power and the glory
forever and ever. Amen.

The Words of Our Lord

P Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said: "Take, eat; this is My † body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me."

In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying: "Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My † blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

 Though the storms may gather,
 Still have peace within.

 Thou art still my purest pleasure,
 Jesus, priceless treasure!

Stewardship Emphasis 2024

Next Sunday is Reformation Sunday and Pledge Sunday. Please continue using this guide as a review of this past Sunday's readings and in preparation for next Sunday's texts.

Monday—Mark 10:23–31

First...last; last...first. Jesus loves to turn the thoughts of man upside down. While he doesn't condemn earthly possessions, he warns us against putting our trust in them. Read Matt. 6:19–21.

Tuesday—Ecclesiastes 5:10–20

The Bible can speak positively of possessions. What does Solomon say is good to do in v. 18? How can greed sneak into our hearts to spoil our enjoyment of life? How might St. Paul's words to the Philippians sharpen our perspective (Phil. 4:11–13)?

Wednesday—John 8:31–36

The Greek word for "abide" or "remain" occurs some three dozen times in John's Gospel. The greatest concentration is found in John 15:1–11. How does the image of a branch being joined to the vine speak of our abiding in Christ?

Thursday—Romans 3:19–28

Paul's "but now" in v. 21 is a crucial turning point in his epistle. For nearly three chapters he has hammered hard on our sinful nature. How does he summarize our standing before God in v. 20? We can offer nothing to appease God's wrath. "But now..." What has God done apart from the Law?

Friday—John 8:31–36

Jesus says that knowing the truth sets us free. From what? Read Rom. 6:17–23 for Paul's extended commentary on Jesus' words. Note that though Christ has set us free from slavery to sin, we are still slaves. But now to whom? What fruits of this slavery do we enjoy (v. 22)?

Saturday—Romans 3:19–28

Notice the blunt contrast that Paul sets forth in vv. 23–24. That word "gift" is obviously important. The history of mankind is littered with attempts to appease God's wrath—our self-made offerings to please God. But it won't do, will it? How does God rectify the situation? Whom does he give for us? If it's all the work of Christ, then what are we not permitted to do (v. 27)?

From the Large Catechism

This is the greatest calamity: that the world believes nothing of God's promises, because it sees that those who trust in God and not in money suffer care and want in this life, and the devil opposes and resists them; that they have neither money, favor, nor honor, and besides can scarcely support life. On the other hand, they think that those who serve money have power, favor, honor, possessions, and every comfort in the eyes of the world. For this reason, against such appearances, God's invitation to trust in him above all things must be grasped; and we must remember that his promises do not lie or deceive, but will prove true.

Prayer

Read the Collect of the Day on the reverse side every day! Then conclude with this prayer:

Gracious Father in heaven, though our sinful flesh continually wars against Your will, You have promised grace and every blessing for all who trust in You. Put away from us all forms of self-love, that, trusting You above all things, we may learn to live in humble service to our neighbor; through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

A prayer before you fill out your pledge card:

Lord Jesus, in Your boundless love You laid down Your life so that I might not die but live eternally. Teach me to love You above all things and to set aside all earthly gain, that I might know the eternal treasures that You have prepared for me and all who trust in You. Bless our congregation as well as those in our community and in our lives who do not know You, that together we may forever dwell in Your presence, together with the Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.
